OBITUARY.

Devoted in Life; United in Death

Devoted in Life; United in Death
The recent passing of that loving old couple, Colonel W. B. Petilt and his wife, at their home, Glen Burnie, in Fluvanna county, Va., was almost as beautiful as their life together.

On the 14th day of. February the regrands of Colonel W. B. Petilt were reverently laid to rest, and now his wife lies by his side. In both instances their sons and grandsons bore them gently to their last resting places, in sight of the home they loved so well. Hand in hand they had "climbed the hill together," and it, seeins but meet they should sleep together at the foot," Noted far and near for their devotion and temperature of their devotion for their superising when one "crossed over the river" they other was waisaging the theoretic superising when one "crossed over the river" they define years old; his wife a few years younger; and they had celebrated their golden wedding smore than three years ago. Mrs. Petilt was, before her marriage, Miss. Arabella Emilline Spealrs, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Daniel Spealrs, of Harmony Castle, on James River, in Cumberland county, Va. While yet in her teens she plighted her troth and married her first love, and 4 more devoted wife and mother never lived.

Mrs. Petilt could trace her ancostry back to the royal house of Scotland, but one needed not this information to be assured she was," to the manner born." Of queenly presence, dignified, though gentle manners, her warm heart shone out in her beautiful eyes and she was at once a combination of the "old-time Virginized ahee" and the critured Christian gentlewoman of to-day.

Idolized by her household, loved by all who knew her, she has gone forth to be requited to her bridegroom beyond the skies. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God,"

Colonel and Mrs. Petitt are survived by seven children—Pembroke Petiti, of Fluvanna; Mrs. N. C. Harris, of Frederick's Hall, Va.; Dr. W. B. Pe

Osler the Baltimore American contained a lengthy report of the speech, in which account was the following:

"Dr. Osler next announced that he had two fixed ideas which, sometimes bered his friends—one the comparative uselessness of men above forty years of age, the other the absolute uselessness of men above sixty years of age.

"Take the sum,' he said, 'of human achievement in action, in science, in art, in literature, subtract the work of the men above forty, and, while we should miss great treasures—even priceless treasures—we would practically be where we are to-day. It is difficult to name a great and far-reaching conquest of the mind are to-day. It is difficult to name a great and far-reaching conquest of the mind which has not been given to the world by a man on whose back the sun was still shining. The effective, moving, vitalizing work of the world is done between the ages of twenty-five and forty—these fifteen golden years of plenty, the anabolic or constructive period, in which there is always a balance in the mental bank and the credit is still good. ## GENEROUS GIFT FOR SEABOARD HOSPITAL

Mrs. Ryan Offers Forty-five Thousand Dollars With Reasonable Conditions.

Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan, of New York, the donor of the handsome new esthedrainow nearing completion in this city, has announced that she will give $4.500 for the establishment of three hospitals at points along the Seaboard Air Line Railway. The points at which it is proposed to locate these railway hospitals are Petersburg, Va. Hamlet, N. C., and Tampa, Fla. The offer is coupled with a condition, and efforts are new making to ascertain whather those conditions will be met by those most interested in the project, it is almost a foregone conclusion that they will be, but a positive report to that effect will be necessary to convert probability into certainty.

The donation and the construction of the hospitals at the points stated is continued to the contribute and certain proportion of the monthly salaries for the maintenance of these hospitals. With a view to assertaining the sentiment of the employes on this point President and General Manager J. M. Barr, of the Seaboard Air Line, has sent our to employes a circular asking for an expression from each employe as to his willingness to contribute the small monthly sum asked.

The action of the will of one of the principal owners of the railroad is similar to that taken by other railway corporations. The Cheshpeake and Ohlo Railway to that taken by other railway corporations. The Cheshpeake and Ohlo Railway has one or more hospitals along its limitations. The Cheshpeake and Ohlo Railway and her husband are Verginiana, and they have testified their interest in Virgula affairs frequently and substantially. Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan, of New York,
